

You're invited to the 3rd annual D.C. Farm to School Week Kick-Off Event!

Please join us in celebrating the start of the third annual D.C. Farm to School Week and the first ever National Farm to School Month from 2:00 pm to 3:30 pm on Monday October 3rd, 2011 at Thurgood Marshall Academy Public Charter High School and Savoy Public Elementary School's shared gymnasium at 2427 Martin Luther King Jr. Ave, SE in Washington, DC.
All are welcome!

Please RSVP by Friday Sept. 30th by emailing RSVP@dcfarmtoschool.org.

During the event, four local chefs will compete to make seasonal salads for a panel of esteemed judges, using produce from D.C. school gardens. V.I.P guests will join us, and hopefully there will be enough for the audience to taste, too! Student-led tours of the Great Garden of Anacostia will follow.

Chef Oliver Friendly and his TMA student sous-chef serve up samples at the D.C. Farm to School Week kick-off event last year!

During the week of October 3rd-7th, 2011, schools across Washington, DC will feature seasonal, local foods in their school meals; and engage students in hands-on food & farming activities! During the event we will honor schools participating in D.C. Farm to School Week, and mark the start of the first ever National Farm to School Month.
